RICHARD HEGLIN,)	ORDER
)
Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on defendant's Motion to Continue Trial [61]. The parties continue to discuss possible resolutions short of trial. In addition, the court has been notified that counsel for the government is not available due to a family matter. For good cause shown, the motion will be granted.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [61] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for July 19, 2022, is continued to August 30, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and August 30, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny the government continuity of counsel or counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: July 12, 2022

United States Magistrate Judge
